

Karen Paulina Biswell

Karen Paulina Biswell, born in 1983 to Colombian parents who fled the political violence of the 1990s, divides her time between Paris and Bogotá. Her work explores vulnerability, femininity and human destiny. She took part in the Dusseldorf Photo + Biennial with ?KIMA?, a collaborative project with Maria Amilbia Siagama Siagama, guardian of the memory of the Embera community. In 2021, she will create the installation-performance Villa Eden at the Hôtel La Louisiane, under the direction of Pascal Beausse.

In 2018, she will carry out the ?Chère Pipi? project in French Guiana thanks to a residency at the Musée du Quai Branly. In 2019, her installation Body is presented at the A4 Art Museum in Chengdu, continuing her reflections on the body as an interface of understanding. Her work has been exhibited in Miami, Montreal, New York, Medellin and Arles. A prizewinner at the ?Strike a Pose? 2022 festival in Dusseldorf, she has also won several international awards. Her work can be found in the collections of prestigious institutions, including the Musée du Quai Branly and the MAMM.
